DINNER DATE IS UNCERTAIN

Not Known When Henry Drum Will Reach Here in Trip Over the Borderland
EXPECTED THURSDAY

For the third time plans relative to the Borderland route had to be changed yesterday, the occasion being an apparent setting ahead of the schedule of Harry C. Drum, secretary of the Transcontinental Tours club. A special meeting of the directors of the Commercial club was necessitated, which was hastily called for last night after notices had been sent out for Wednesday, and a settling upon Thursday night as the date for the dinner of good roads advocates, at which Mr. Drum will be the guest of honor, was thought necessary.

Telegraphs Report
Changes in arrangements previously made were contemplated yesterday morning when the following telegram was received from T. A. Hughes, representative of the Warren district at the El Paso meeting:
"El Paso, April 23.—To Warren District Commercial club, J. H. Gray, secretary: Mr. Drum arrives here today. Leaves for Deming in the morning, and will arrive in Bisbee Thursday. El Paso gave good reception and entertainment. Everybody enthusiastic over Borderland route." Notices of a meeting to be held tonight, at which final preparations were to be perfected, were mailed on Monday night, so the telephone was brought into requisition and a meeting arranged for last night, and those interested in the good roads meetings were also invited.

Time of Arrival Doubtful
At the meeting of those interested in good roads and the Borderland route last night, an article from the Douglas International was read, which stated that the stop in Lordsburg would be made, and the old schedule which would bring the party here maintained. A telephone call to either T. A. Hughes or E. P. Grindell at Deming, brought the answer that they were not registered at either hotel in that town up to 9:30, which was taken to mean that they were delayed on the road to that point. A telephone inquiry of Douglas resulted in the information that E. P. Grindell had telegraphed Monday night that the party would be in Douglas on Thursday, which corresponds with the original plan. Under these circumstances the matter of meeting Mr. Drum in Douglas and his entertainment here could only be held in abeyance for further advice, and the date of the banquet was left open, to be arranged today by the entertainment committee, while the arrangements for meeting the pathfinder in Douglas and escorting him on to Tucson was referred to the good roads committee and the secretary of the Commercial club.

In the absence of the president and vice president of the Commercial club, the meeting resolved itself into purely a good roads meeting, and no club business was transacted. The banquet will be held on the evening of the arrival of Mr. Drum, and definite information as to whether that will be Thursday or Friday is expected today so that the announcement can be made. It was suggested last night that possibly Mr. Hughes' telegram, which apparently indicated the arrival of the party in Bisbee Thursday, might mean that Mr. Hughes would come on through and be in Bisbee on Thursday, and did not alter the original plans, which included a stop in Lordsburg tonight.

CONCRETE WORK ON BRIDGES COMPLETE

Two on Tombstone Canyon Road Ready For the Steel

All concrete work on the two bridge sites on the Tombstone canyon road extension were completed yesterday, and the bridges are now ready for the steel, which will be shipped from El Paso on April 26. It is expected that the steel will arrive in Bisbee about May 1.

In the meantime the entire force of laborers on the extension will be employed in filling in the depression above the lower bridge, and in making the five-foot cut through the creek bed at the far end of the extension. Considerable work has already been done on this, but it will be carried on with a rush now, as all laborers will be put to work on it. The rock and dirt that is being taken from the cut is being carted to the fill as fast as it is removed, and as the amount of silt that must be taken from the cut is approximately the amount that will be needed to fill the depression, there will be no loss of time or energy, and both will be completed almost simultaneously. Although it is only a week until May 1, the time originally set for the completion of the road, it is likely that autoists will be able to take a May day spin up the extended Tombstone canyon road.

HARD WORK TO GET HIM TO LEAVE TOWN

"Vag" Didn't Know Court Wanted Him to Get Out of Town

A. Murdock, a prisoner charged with being a vagrant person, "escaped" from the custody of Police man Lorenzo Wright yesterday morning and was not caught again. He had been arrested by Officer Walter Brooks on the charge of being a "vag." The arresting officer left yesterday morning for Tombstone, so the court was in a quandary what to do, as the offense of vagrancy may be committed in several different ways.

The prisoner saved the court further worry, however, by entering a plea of guilty, and bolstering it up with a further plea of mercy. The court entered a fine of fifteen dollars, and gave Murdock an hour in which to collect it.

In two hours he came back, and had been unable to raise the fine. Asked where his home town was, he replied that he had friends at Galveston, Texas. The court hinted broadly that he might go to Galveston and get the money, but the prisoner did not "tumble," and exasperated the court by sobbingly calling for further mercy, and the court ordered Officer Wright to put him in jail.

As the officer was leaving the court room with the prisoner, the judge called the officer back, and Murdock, seeing his chance, ran up O. K. trail. O. K. trail is the "right route east," and the officer overtook him and headed him south on Naco road. "If you go down this road at the same rate you were going up O. K. trail," he told the vag, "there'll be no kick coming." He did.

ALMOST A MIRACLE.

TRIAL HEARD BY SEVERAL HUNDRED

Many Miners Interested in Case Called in Justice Court

F. W. Pheby, an electrician, was tried in Justice High's court yesterday afternoon at four o'clock on the charge of threatening to do bodily harm to E. Finnity, day foreman at the Czar shaft. One witness, another electrician, was arrested on the same charge, but the Pheby case occupied the entire afternoon. Both men were under bond to keep the peace until the time of the hearing. The trouble out of which the arrest of the two men grew, started underground, on the 400 level at the Czar shaft. It was charged in the complaint that both men threatened to do Finnity bodily harm after they had been fired by the day foreman. Several witnesses testified that Finnity had been invited to go to the surface to settle the trouble, and one witness testified that one of the defendants told the other, "Don't hit him down here; if you do you know what we will get." This was denied by both men, however.

Finnity testified that one of the men addressed an insulting remark to him, and that he fired him; the other man, Pheby, told Finnity in picturesque language that Finnity could not fire an electrician. Finnity overheard the remark, and fired Pheby also.

When Duval was testifying what he had told the day foreman, instructing the boss where to lead in, a miner in the court room, in the back row of the circle which surrounded the court officers, lawyers and witnesses, remarked, "Good boy, in a loud voice, and was called down by the court. Several hundred miners heard the trial.

ALL WELCOME TO SPECIAL TREATMENT

Several Business Men Have Said They Will Be "Insured"

Several persons, prominent business men, have notified the health authorities that they will take the typhoid anti-toxin treatment, which will be given to all who request it at the cost of the medicine used in the treatment, which will be about a dollar and a quarter.

Dr. Mimer, county health officer, stated yesterday that the offer was intended for every citizen in the county, not only the people of Bisbee, and that the people of Douglas, Tombstone, Gleason, Benson and all other county points are as welcome to the treatment as anyone.

In Tuesday's Review, it was erroneously stated that the period of rest following the taking of the treatment that is advised by physicians was ten days. It is not ten days, but only forty-eight hours. The business man who desires to take out this "typhoid insurance" may take the treatment Saturday, and the slight rise of temperature would then occur on Sunday, so there would be no loss of time from business on account of the treatment.

BABY DIED FROM NATURAL CAUSES

So Decide Coroner's Jury Called in Case of Young Child

"Please come and see if baby died," was the pathetic appeal made in a letter to Bob Hennessy yesterday morning. The letter was written on a scrap of note paper, and was poorly worded. "Please come and see if baby died," the letter ran. "Was very sick, and he died this morning. His mother she is a lone woman and widow." The letter was signed by Yzabel Ortiz.

The death of the infant was reported to Coroner High, who empaneled a jury and visited the house, where he found the still form of a month old Mexican baby. The coroner's jury met again last night at seven o'clock, and after examining several witnesses, reported their verdict to be that death was due to natural causes. The fact that the child died without medical attention made it necessary to hold an inquest. The body of the child was turned over to the county undertakers for interment.

LITTLE INTEREST IN THE PRIMARIES

Contest For Nominations Fails to Arouse Enthusiasm

Though the city primary will be held on Saturday, nearly every other question will take precedence over it as a topic of discussion. No interest whatever attaches to the contests for offices that offer no pay, and in the case of offices that pay, the burden of exciting any interest lies on the candidate. No announcements of candidates have been made in any newspaper, and the only indication of active desire are a few cards printed and posted in prominent places. All election blanks have been printed and the officials named. Judging from the interest being displayed, the vote in the primary will be light.

Up to yesterday noon one thousand and twenty-five voters had registered. Those posted on political matters believe that between 1,300 and 1,400 voters will register for the election. Contrary to popular belief, the registration books will not close this week or next week, but will remain open until May 17, ten days before the date of the election.

All three notes were purported to be notes of a California bank, raising the suspicion that the counterfeiter came from the Golden State.

MADE HER PROPOSAL TO BEVY OF GIRLS

Chicago Girl Write to P. O. Clerks With View to Matrimony

A delicately worded leap year proposal, addressed to "post office clerk," was received at the Bisbee post office yesterday from a Chicago girl. It so happens that all of the clerks in the Bisbee post office are girls, so the proposition so delicately hinted at fell on barren ground.

The hint came in a letter of inquiry regarding a girl friend of the Chicago maiden, who is eloquently described as handsome, dark-eyed and with beautiful, peach-blow complexion. Here is the meat of the letter, however. "The worst part of it is that she is married and I am not." Fancy the awful plight of this darling Chicago beauty. Isn't it awful? Worse luck still, the "post office clerk," all post office clerks in Bisbee, are themselves girls, so the proposal did not even get a bite.

Stoddard leaves a husband and a son, and her mother. Mr. Stoddard managed the Vienna bakery during his residence here.
